VIT Bhopal University
Integrated M.Tech, Artificial Intelligence
Aug 2025 – May 2030

Activities and societies: Interested in participating in technical clubs, coding activities, and AI/ML related events. Looking forward to engaging in workshops, hackathons, and collaborative projects to enhance my skills and gain practical experience.

I am currently pursuing an Integrated M.Tech in Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning at VIT Bhopal University. I am interested in programming, data science, and AI technologies. I aim to build strong technical skills, work on real-world projects, and continuously learn to grow as a skilled professional in the field of AI and software development.
